The European
WATER LABEL

Francis Pegler are currently engaged in a range of initiatives aimed at improving knowledge on water efficiency to encourage consumers to use water wisely.

It is estimated that over the next 25 years water challenges will increase significantly as the resource comes under additional pressure from population growth, industrial processes, agriculture, transport systems and consumer desire for grander water products.

In the UK the Bathroom Manufacturers Association (BMA) has set up a voluntary industry scheme to label products based on water usage. The Water Label will allow consumers to see the amount of water used per flush cycle, and in taps and showers how many litres a minute are used.

Product innovation and quality manufacturing lie at the heart of Francis Pegler. The company is also renowned for embracing legislative requirements and providing products that are at the forefront of technological developments to reduce water usage.

Brands Francis Pegler and Performa by Francis Pegler currently offer a number of ranges of taps that reduce flow rates to levels prescribed by Part G of the Building Regulations. Many taps in the ranges already consider water saving by using click-cartridges, where lever resistance offers the user two or three levels of reduced flow rate.

The Performa brand has long been associated with specialist technical taps designed to limit water usage, this includes sensor technologies, and self-closing taps, both of which are already widely used in commercial applications.

In these conditions, reference to the Company shall mean Francis Pegler. All previous terms and conditions of sale are hereby cancelled, and only the following shall have effect from 1st January 2012. All quotations are made, and all orders are accepted subject to these conditions. All other terms, conditions or warranties whatsoever are excluded from the contract or any variation thereof unless expressly accepted by the Company in writing. In the event of a conflict between these conditions and the specific terms and conditions of quotation then the latter shall prevail.

2. ELECTRONIC TRADING

a) If the Company and Buyer agree that electronic trading between them shall be a basis for order processing and invoicing then the Standard Interchange Agreement (1st Edition March 1989) of the EDI Association shall be incorporated into the contract by reference subject to these conditions.

b) Electronic orders shall be valid if all the information agreed between the Buyer and the Company as being required is properly set out in the agreed format and the order is transmitted by the Buyer to the Company by reference to the correct identification code and is received by the Company when collecting its electronic mail from the relevant system.

c) Each valid electronic order will be deemed accepted by the Company unless the Company communicates rejection of the order to the Buyer by electronic or other means (including telephone) within 24 hours of receipt. d) If the Company and the Buyer agree that invoicing may be done by electronic mail, then payment will be due 30 days after the date of electronic invoice unless agreed otherwise.

3. DELIVERY

Any date for delivery named by the Company is an estimate only and in no circumstances shall the failure of the Company to deliver on or before the named date either entitle the Buyer to rescind or terminate the contract or make the Company liable in any way for the consequences of any delay.

4. EXPORT

Unless specifically stated otherwise in these conditions all trade terms not specifically covered by these conditions shall be interpreted in accordance with INCOTERMS current on the date of that order.

5. WARRANTY AND DEFECTIVE GOODS

Such goods shall be returned to the Company, and if proved to have been defective at delivery as a result of faulty materials or workmanship, the Company shall at its option replace or repair such goods. Defects in quality or dimension in any delivery shall not be ground for cancellation of the remainder of the order.

5. WARRANTY AND DEFECTIVE GOODS

e) Save for any liability for death or personal injury caused by the Company's negligence, the Company's liability in connection with defective goods shall be limited to the repair or supply of a replacement for the defective goods, and the Company shall not be liable for any other loss or damage including, but not limited to loss of profit, labour costs, damage to property, wasted expenditure or cost of mitigation.
